

Public Fashion Revue Script Card

Turn into the office by July 1st along with Shopping in Style and Sewing and Textile Design Pre-Entry Forms.

Each model may only model one Shopping in Style outfit and one Sewing and Textile Design Outfit at the Public Revue.

- Please WRITE the script below that you would like the announcer to read as you model for the public revue.

Example 1: When Leah goes to a thrift store, she always hopes to find a treasure. For less than $15, this Clover Club 4-H member, found a denim vest that she paired with a light and airy skirt. The vest can be dressed up or dressed down with many other items hanging in her closet. This 13-year-old homeschooler loves to sketch fashion ideas and loves dance. Enjoy this great multipurpose outfit, Leah!

Example 2: Jaque thinks sewing is so much fun! As a fourth-year clothing construction member she stitched up this ruffled summer dress with the help of her project leader. Notice the fun fabric pattern that she discovered at a specialty shop while on a spring break trip. She is looking forward to packing this outfit for the family cruise vacation. This Jolly Juniors 4-H member will be ready to tackle another 4-H Clothing project next year. Thank You Jaque!

Example 3: Even though John does not love shopping, he does love a brand-new pair of Ariat Boot-Cut jeans! His favorite place to be is in the barn working with his livestock and getting ready for the fair. His plaid western shirt is a staple in his wardrobe and he will have many places to wear this outfit including the rodeo and family events. Dan is a sophomore at Sunflower High School and will be a starter on the football team this fall. Looks good Dan!

Keep it short and snappy! Remember, the 4-H'er will have to be on stage modeling the entire time this is read. Practice it at home and see how it feels before submitting.
